

Expect fabulous.
this is no ordinary conference...

Nursing Diversity: Successful strategies for care delivery

"Exceptional nurses doing wonderful things!"

A boutique conference, filled with wonderful education sessions as well as lots of exciting excursions and activities. You'll get to see the sites of Hobart, taste the delights of Tasmania and learn from experienced professionals on a wide range of topics. Places are LIMITED so get in EARLY!

Visit the Port Arthur Historic Precinct and find out how health care was delivered back in the convict settlement. Sessions including burns, hyperbarics, wound care, professional supervision, pain management and much more. The gorgeous Meadowbank Estate Winery. Tours at the hospital. Shopping at Salamanca Markets... Cadbury. ..MONA. ..Oh seriously, just go to the website and check out the program! There's too much to list here!

This conference is endorsed by APEC No. 111021001 as authorised by Royal College of Nursing Australia (RCNA) according to approved criteria. Attendance attracts 22 RCNA CNE points as part of RCNA's Life Long Learning Program (3LP).